Barbor, 6th Dragoons, from W.C. Morshead, 1851".Robert Douglas Barbor was first commissioned Cornet, 6th Inniskilling Dragoons on 15th March 1827. He served with the Regiment for 24 years, being promoted Lieutenant on 9th April 1829 and Captain on 28th April 1837. He went on half pay on 6th June 1845, was appointed Regimental Paymaster on 16th February 1849, and retired on 11th November 1851 with the rank of Major (half pay). After retiring from the Regiment he subsequently continued for many years as a Barrack Master at Glasgow, only relinquishing that post in 1869, after 42 years service with the colours.Sir Warwick Charles Morshead, Baronet, of Tenant Park, Cornwall, Justice of the Peace for Berkshire and Cornwall, was born in 1824. He succeeded as 3rd Baronet in 1828, at four years of age, and was first commissioned Ensign, 15th Foot, on 2nd June 1843. He transferred to the 6th Inniskilling Dragoons as Cornet in 1845, was promoted Lieutenant on 9th June 1846, Captain on 22nd March 1850, and retired in 1853. He died in 1905, when the title became extinct.This is an example of the earliest type of purpose made vesta case. Initially (circa 1835-1855), vesta cases were merely converted from other boxes such as vinaigrettes or snuff boxes. Early boxes made specifically as vesta cases, like this Edinburgh example, were produced from 1850 to circa 1865, still following the format of the earlier "snuff box" types, with the lid along the top of the box. The later, more common type (produced circa 1865 onwards), have the lid set at the end or on one side of the box. | £350.00 | 490 |
