The Order of the Holy Sepulchre was founded by Godefroy de Bouillon, leader of the First Crusade, who captured Jerusalem from the Saracens in 1099. Godefroy established the order in that year to commemorate his great victory, founding an order of knights dedicated to the protection of holy places and pilgrims. By the 19th century it was one of only two religious orders of knighthood recognised by the Holy See (the other being the Sovereign Holy Order of Malta), and was awarded for services to the Holy See, and to individuals who engaged in important charitable work. The Order of the Holy Sepulchre was reorganised in 1868 by Pius IX. What had originally been an order with only one class, Knight, was expanded to three classes, Knight Grand Cross, Knight Commander and Knight.	£650	€812.50
