

POLITICAL, SOCIETY, COMMEMORATIVE AND PRIZE MEDALS

M1149	S. REEVE, BRITISH RED CROSS SOCIETY, PROFICIENCY IN FIRST AID BREAST BADGE, gilt bronze and enamel, with ornate gilt bronze and enamel top brooch suspender, by J. R. Gaunt, London (reverse officially impressed: 33429 S. REEVE). Extremely Fine.	£18.00	€25.2
BS3473	TAUNTON, DEVON, BISHOP FOX'S GIRLS SCHOOL, athletics prize medal, in silver (not hallmarked), circular, 32mm, obverse engraved with the school bidge, a pelican plucking her breast to feed her young, ribbon around engraved "BISHOP FOX'S GIRLS SCHOOL", the plain field engraved beneath "TAUNTON". Reverse, a laurel wreath, engraved within "DORA MATHISON". Integral ring suspension, with its original ribbon and silver top suspender brooch, this engraved "GAMES CHAMPION" and reverse with maker's mark "F&S" (for Fattorini & Sons) and additionally stamped "Sterling", probably circa 1890-1900 vintage.	£30.00	€42
BS3522	THE GOLD GLASGOW ULSTER ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT'S BREAST BADGE, awarded to Andrew L. Horner, K.C., M.P., comprising an ornate openwork engraved and enamelled shield shaped breast badge in 9 carat gold (hallmarked Birmingham 1909), the centre of the badge enamelled with the arms of Glasgow in pink, grey, black, green, brown, yellow and red, title "Glasgow Ulster Association" engraved above, reverse engraved "Presented to A.L. Horner Esq K.C., M.P. (South Tyrone) as a memento as having presided at the annual reunion of the natives of Ulster in the City Hall, Glasgow, 6.10.10.". With its original 9 carat gold "Union" brooch suspender, engraved with thistles, roses and shamrocks. Virtually as struck, attractive and very rare, in its original David Dow & Son, Glasgow, silk and velvet lined case of issue. Weight 20 grams, 2.4 inches (6cm) high approx including suspender. Andrew L. Horner, born Limavady, 1863, was educated at Foyle College, Londonderry and Queen's University, Belfast. A member of the north-west Irish circuit, he was a Bencher at the King's Inns, Dublin and was appointed K.C. 1904 and was M.P., Unionist, for South Tyrone, Ireland, from January 1910. Horner first contested the South Tyrone seat in 1906, and was successfully elected in 1910. He married Annie, the younger daughter of the late John Robb, J.P., Belfast. Horner resided during his latter years at 34 Fitzwilliam Place, Dublin, and was a member of the Constitutional and Carlton clubs. He died n 26 January 1916, leaving his wife, two sons and one daughter. The Motorcycle Union of Ireland - Ulster Centre - prize medal won by Andrew Horner's son, F. Horner, in 1928, is also available on this website.	£750.00	€1050
BS3523	THE MOTOR CYCLE UNION OF IRELAND - ULSTER CENTRE - SILVER AND ENAMEL PRIZE MEDAL awarded to F. Horner. Obverse: a motorcycle and rider racing to right, shield below with enamelled badge of Ulster, a red hand, reverse engraved in 4 lines: "End to End / won by / F. Horner / 1928", by Sharman D. Neill, Belfast, hallmarked Birmingham 1928. Extremely Fine and virtually as struck, in its original Sharman D. Neill case of issue. F. Horner was the son of Andrew L. Horner. Andrew L. Horner was a member of the north-west Irish circuit, he was a Bencher at the King's Inns, Dublin and was appointed K.C. 1904 and was M.P., Unionist, for South Tyrone, Ireland, from January 1910. Horner first contested the South Tyrone seat in 1906, and was successfully elected in 1910. He married Annie, the younger daughter of the late John Robb, J.P., Belfast. Horner resided during his latter years at 34 Fitzwilliam Place, Dublin, and was a member of the Constitutional and Carlton clubs. He died in 26	£45.00	€63

REF

STG

EURO

	January 1916, leaving his wife, two sons and one daughter. The THE GOLD GLASGOW ULSTER ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT'S BREAST BADGE, awarded to Andrew L. Horner, K.C., M.P., is also available on this site.
BS3277	EMPIRE DAY, 24TH MAY 1936, bronze medal, portrait of Edward VIII on obverse, unnamed, as issued. Almost Extremely Fine.	£17.00	€23.8
BS3276	EMPIRE DAY, 24TH MAY 1936, bronze medal, portrait of Edward VIII on obverse, unnamed, as issued. Almost Extremely Fine	£17.00	€23.8